MEMORIES

Through our three years at East High School, we have gathered many fond memories. As the trees on the campus have changed, we have gained maturity. As new doors were added, worthwhile education was added to our lives.

When we started to East High, the new addition was just beginning to be built. Now as it is finished, we are being graduated. As the school has grown, so have we.

THRILLS

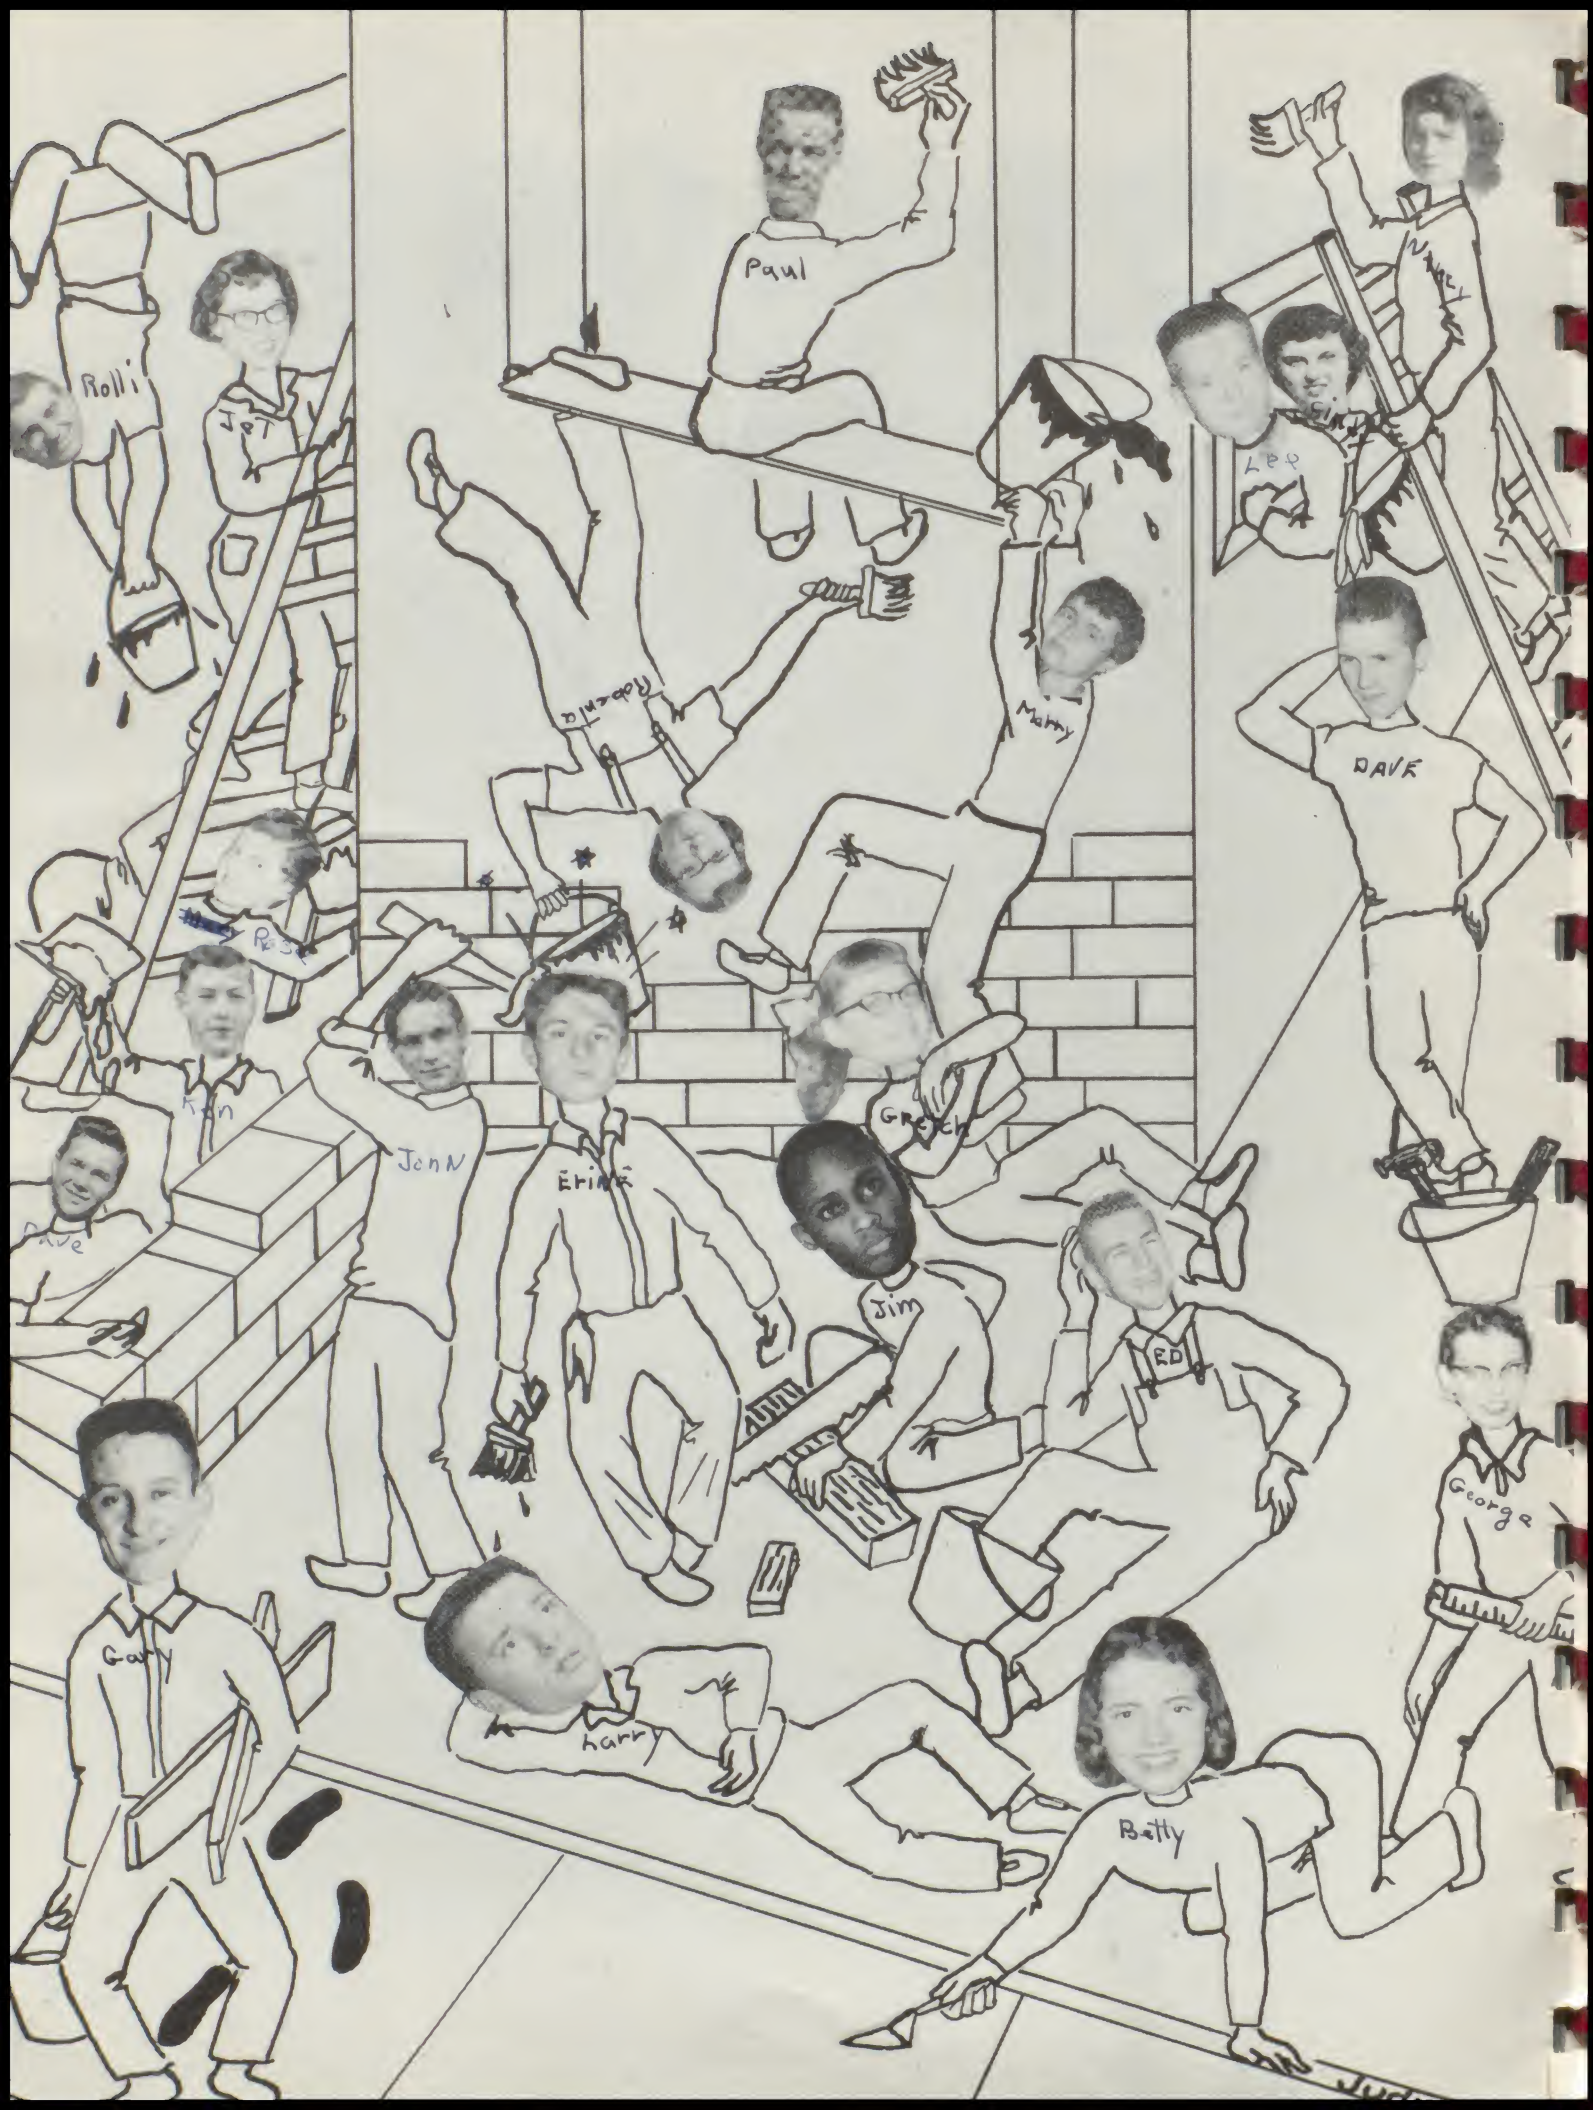

Just as we have gathered memories, we have also had many thrills. The sports we have participated in and the many games we have attended to cheer our teams to victory have given us three exciting years. The assemblies have filled us with the pep and energy that East High is famous for. Perhaps the greatest thrill of all was the night of our Sugar Plum Prom. Truly we shall never forget the memories and thrills we have experienced at East High School.

The Scarlets met their only defeat of the 1956 season by bowing to the Trojans of East Waterloo by a score of 19 to 14. The game was highlighted by an 84-yard kickoff return by Jim Thomas late in the 4th quarter for East's final touchdown.

MASON CITY MANGLED

With halfback Jim Thomas scoring three touchdowns, and outstanding line work by Vern Simms and Melvern Butts, East defeated Mason City by the score of 20 to 13.

DODGERS DUMPED

Fort Dodge again bowed to the Scarlets of Lee Township by a decisive score of 27-0. The game was highlighted by the running of Ryd Wallersteadt, Jim Thomas, and Larry Fowler. The defensive standcuts were Chuck Nelson, Charles Collins, and Melvern Butts.

TECH TROUNCED

East moved a step closer to the city series crown by defeating Tech 39 to 6. The Scarlets, sparked by the pep of the Alumni Assembly and several line-up changes, played well in the conquest of the Engineers.

RIDERS ROPED

The Scarlets clinched at least a tie for the City Series Championship by defeating Roosevelt 27 to 13. Jim Thomas scored two touchdowns and John Heath scored one on passes from Don Liddicoat. Ed Doty scored the other marker.

BEARS BAMBOOZLED

The Scarlets finished the 1956 season paralyzing North by the score of 40 to 0. Jim Thomas scored four touchdowns, while Larry Youngs and Larry Fowler each scored one. This victory enabled East to clinch an undisputed first place in the City Series and co-champion of the Big Six.

Fri. 18. Some seniors feel rich, others feel gay. Why? Because this is their last day of school at East High. Those of you who are glad, don't rush off too soon. Meet on the front steps at 3:30 for the senior picture. Also, will see you at the East-Roosevelt game tonight.

A crowd quickly gathered when a streetcar struck a milk wagon. As a small man was pushing his way to the front, he found himself blocked by a large, portly woman. Peering around and seeing the cream and milk on the pavement, he exclaimed, "Heavens, what a waste!" The woman turned angrily and yelled, "You mind your own business!"

Miss Engleen: "I'm very much disappointed in the way your son talks. Only today he said 'I ain't never went nowhere'."

Father: He ain't, ain't he? Why the young whelp's done traveled twicest as far as most kids his age."

Donna A. walked into a railroad ticket office in Chicago and asked for a ticket to New York.

"Do you wish to go by Buffalo?" asked the ticket agent.

"Certainly not," she replied. "By train, if you please."

"It's the little things in life that tell," said the sweet coed, as she yanked her little brother from under the sofa.

Solicitor: "Sir, would you be willing to contribute a dime to help the Old Ladies Home?"

Mr. Stratton: "What! Are they out again?"

Dentist: "Where is that aching tooth?"

Dave T. (theater usher): "Balcony, first row to the right."

Beauty Hint: To keep lipstick from coming off, eat onions.

Deanne D.: "Did you know that Mr. Savage talks to himself?"

Frankie S.: "Really?"

Deanne D.: "Yeah, but he doesn't know it. He thinks we're listening!"

Mr. Rizer: "What do you mean by bringing Judy home at 4:00 in the morning?"

Lover-Boy: "Well you see Sir, I have to be at work at 7:30.

Casey: "May I have this dance?"
Virginia R.: "Yeah, if you can find a partner!"
